All exhibitors should act professionally to help make the weekend positive and successful for everyone. Vendor agrees that, if accepted by the 2026 Greek Festival Committee and Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church are under no obligation to rent booth space to the Exhibitor in future Festivals.

Booth locations will be rented and assigned at the Festival Committee's discretion. The Festival is only required to provide the approved booth space. Vendors must ensure their tables and goods do not exceed their allotted area.

Merchandise rules:

Vendors may only sell or display items approved by the Festival Committee. Political merchandise is not allowed. Religious merchandise must align with the Eastern Orthodox Christian Faith.

Vendors acknowledge that the Greek Festival is family-oriented and may not sell or display weapons, pornographic materials, alcohol, tobacco, or illegal items.

Vendors must not distribute any food items, whether packaged or unpackaged (including water and candy), without prior approval from the Vendor Committee. This requirement is in accordance with Health Code regulations.

Booth Space Utilization: Vendor must occupy and staff their assigned booth during all Festival hours. If not, the Festival may fill the space as it sees fit, with no refunds to the Vendor and without releasing the Vendor from liability. Subletting or sharing booth space is prohibited. All applicable fire, health, and safety regulations must be followed. Nothing may be attached to community or private property.

The vendor is responsible for delivering, handling, building, and removing their own displays and equipment. All displays, merchandise, equipment, and staff must stay within the assigned booth area. Amplified music, soliciting in walkways, or "barking" is not permitted. Staff and personnel must remain inside the vendor's space at all times. Displays should be securely assembled to prevent any risk of injury.

Vendors must follow all setup and teardown rules, including promptly removing vehicles as directed by the festival vendor committee. The schedule will be provided before the Festival.

Assumption of Risk: The Vendor accepts full responsibility for its goods, vehicles, materials, and equipment, and understands that the Church, Festival Committee, and festival volunteers are not liable for any loss, theft, or damage. All risks during setup, takedown, and throughout the Festival are assumed by the Vendor.

Business Risk: The vendor is responsible for all sales risks, with no guarantees or warranties from the Church or Festival regarding profits. The event will proceed regardless of weather, and the Festival is not liable for refunds or other issues caused by uncontrollable events or legal requirements.

Indemnity: Vendor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church, the festival committee, and festival volunteers or employees from any loss or liability—including defense costs and fees—arising from or related to the vendor's actions, goods, or services at the Festival.

The vendor must obtain all necessary business licenses, permits, and required insurance for operation.

The Vendor consents to the Festival's use of their photographs and application materials for promotional purposes.

NO SMOKING POLICY: Smoking is prohibited on Festival Venue grounds. Vendors must comply.

Termination Clause - The Festival may end its agreement with the Vendor at any time if the Vendor is found to have violated these rules.
